

QSEN DNP TASKFORCE BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Name and credentials: Sheryl Cosme DNP, RN-BC

Present Position (title and organization): Sr. Operations Manager, Accreditation at the American Nurses Credentialing Center

Primary Email: sheryl.cosme@ana.org

Why is the DNP important to you?

The Doctorate of Nursing Practice provided me with a skillset that taught me how to implement research findings into practice through QI, a scholarly project, and contribute to the profession of nursing. As healthcare continues to change DNP's will have an even more important role in helping mold the future of nursing.

Career Highlights:

I have practiced in an academic teaching hospital in Washington, DC where I ran the nurse residency program. I currently work at the ANCC running the Practice Transition Accreditation Program.

Why are you involved with QSEN?

I want to share my passion for quality and safety and further define the DNP's role in healthcare.
